OUR STORE WILL BE Closed All Day Saturday OPENING AT SIX IN THE EVENING

ON ACCOUNT of Saturday being a holiday, our store will not open until six p. m., and will remain open until ten. In the four hours this store will be a busy place—for we intend through the medium of unusual values to condense a whole day's business into those four hours. Some of the special offerings are mentioned in this advertisement, but scores of others, equally good, will be display throughout the store, although not advertised. Shopping in the "POPULAR" will be very profitable tomorrow night.

Again We Assume The Lead in FIVE DOLLAR HATS

Copied direct from Paris designs, every last one of them; and here's the way you can tell they are not imported hats:
They have no aigrette, ostrich or costly fur.
Instead of imported trimmings and ornaments, American-made copies are used.
The hats bear the "Popular" label.
But insofar as the qualities of velvet and ribbon are concerned, the twists and turns of the shapes, the style, the effect—the makers couldn't tell them from the originals, nor can you.
This would be possible in no other year. But this season, when the costliest and rarest models are trimmed with a stiff feather, perhaps, and a bow or two of velvet, good taste and nimble fingers can do wonders for a five-dollar bill.
So you may base your expectations on the wonders we sold last season and the season before, for five dollars each—and then come expecting more.

WILSON ATTACKS BIPARTISAN BOSS

reminded of your moral duty, you are not malevolent, you are beneficent.
You are big, but you are not cruel." Bipartisan bosses were another object of attack by the New Jersey executive in his speech.

BRYAN CONTINUES VIGOROUS ATTACK AGAINST ROOSEVELT

Helena, Mont., Sept. 20.—Upon the same platform from which Theodore Roosevelt spoke two weeks ago to the first Montana Progressive state convention, William J. Bryan was greeted by a large audience and was vigorous in his attacks upon Roosevelt. He called the goal of reforms for which he declared the Progressive-Democrats had been fighting for years and wanted to know where Roosevelt, when he was present, stood on these questions.
Mr. Bryan said that while the Republican and Democratic national conventions were entirely different, they were the greatest conventions ever held and were in all probability the last of their great national conventions.

ROOSEVELT ATTACKS LEADERS IN OPENING NEBRASKA FIGHT

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 20.—Assailing the Republican leaders in general and Victor Rosewater, of Omaha, former Republican national committeeman in particular, Col. Roosevelt opened his campaign in Nebraska today.

"We have grown to look for leadership to Nebraska," said Col. Roosevelt.
"I think we are doing our part in the east. We are waking up in the east."
"In this district or in any other district the only way in which the Republican party can show itself true to Abraham Lincoln is to support the Progressive party."

"We Progressives intend to see that in our party every promise made by a public man is kept."

NEBRASKA PROGRESSIVES WILL HAVE NAMES ON STATE BALLOT

Lincoln, Neb., Sept. 20.—Secretary of state Watt has ruled that the Progressive party in Nebraska is entitled to have the names of its candidates on the ballot at the general election. An objection had been filed by A. M. Morrissey, candidate for attorney general on the Democratic ticket.

Mr. Morrissey declared his intention to bring an injunction suit to prevent the printing of the names on the ballot.

TAFT SPEAKERS CALL ROOSEVELT A "FOUR FLUSHER"

Tucson, Ariz., Sept. 20.—Former congressman J. A. Adam, of Minnesota, and John M. Harlan, of Chicago, campaigning in the interest of president Taft, spoke in Tucson. Both speakers turned Col. Roosevelt a "sneaker" and a "four-flusher." They left for the east, following the route taken by Mr. Roosevelt through New Mexico and Colorado.

WITHDRAWS AS ELECTION.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 20.—Daniel J.
Kelleher, Republican and Progressive nominee for presidential elector, and Republican primary by Ben Selling of Portland. He was defeated for the nomination in the Progressive party convention by A. E. Clark, of Portland.

JOHNSON ASSAILS TAGGART.

Indianapolis, Ind., Sept. 20.—In a heated attack on Thomas Taggart and Joseph B. Keating, Gov. Johnson accused them of being the leaders of a "Republican-Democratic" boss alliance, and predicted their political downfall with the adoption of a direct primary in Indiana.

STRAUS WITHDRAWS AS ELECTOR.

New York, Sept. 20.—Nathan Straus, brother of Oscar S. Straus, Progressive candidate for governor of New York, has resigned as a candidate on the Democratic ticket for presidential elector at large.
